

US Vancouver Consulate Mail-in Instructions

The U.S. Consulate General Vancouver can provide signature authentication on documents signed by officials in British Columbia or The Yukon who have registered their signature with the Consulate.

There is a $50.00USD fee per authentication. The fee for authentication should be in the form of the U.S. dollar bank draft made payable to: The U.S. Consulate General, Vancouver.

Only one authentication certificate is needed per document unless multiple notaries are used in which case additional fees will be required.

Please include a postage paid or xpresspost mailer for return of the documents. Unfortunately we cannot honor requests for return via courier.

Mail to:

U.S. Consulate General Vancouver
562-1027 Davie Street
Vancouver, BC V6E 4L2

We will make every effort to return documents in a timely manner however we cannot provide an estimated turnaround at this time.

The above information was provided to Beverly Carter Notary Public from the US Consulate in Vancouver on June 24, 2020.

You should satisfy yourself to the accuracy of this information prior to sending your documents.
